

Community Care Hub Weekly Partner Update

Monday, September 7, 2026

Welcome to this week's Community Care Hub Partner Update! Below you'll find important updates, reminders, upcoming opportunities, and resources to help you stay informed and connected.

What you need to know this week

- Self-Referral Form Update

We're continuing to update the Hub self-referral form to make it easier for people seeking support. This will not impact partner workflows or require any action from you. If you use or share the form, you'll see the updated version soon.

- Courtesy Reports Coming in October

Courtesy Reports will not be sent out in September. In October, partners will receive reports for both August and September.

No action is needed at this time. We'll share additional information when the reports are sent next month.
